

WORDS MATTER

"We are not sure that words can always save lives, but we know that silence can certainly kill..."

– MSF's 1999 Nobel Prize acceptance address

WORDS can perpetuate harm - or they can heal and bring change.

We are beginning the journey of DECOLONIZATION by understanding the POWER OF LANGUAGE and how it underpins structural racism.

Field	→	Location
Mission	→	Assignment
Expat	→	Staff

It starts by examining how our words IMPACT OUR RELATIONSHIP in the context of medical humanitarianism.

Connect to conversations, mentoring and e-learning spaces to be part of the change.
